

Driving the Malay Students OF KLMUC towards Excellence

KLMUC signs MoU with GPMS in working towards entrepreneurship and volunteerism

14th of February 2014- Kuala Lumpur Metropolitan University College (KLMUC) held an official MoU signing with Gabungan Pelajar Melayu Semenanjung (GPMS) in a collaborative effort to work together for volunteerism and entrepreneurship. A youth dialogue program was also held in light of this partnership.

Honourable guests such as Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob, Minister of Agriculture and Agro Based Industries and Datuk Ibrahim Ahmad, Director General of MARA, Professor Dr Ahmad Hairi Abu Bakar, Vice Chancellor of KLMUC and 150 students from KLMUC were present at the event.

Amongst the topics discussed during the youth dialogue session were the introduction of GPMS to KLMUC students and the establishment of the corporate body between both parties. Insights were also given on the success secrets of iconic Malay entrepreneur, Dr Hazirah Izzati Mat Hassim. The dialogue session also shed light on ethical consumerism and the importance of anti-bribery.

“This collaboration between KLMUC students and GPMS will further propel our Malay students to strive for success in their undertakings, not only have the students gained insightful knowledge in the entrepreneurship arena but they have been taught the true spirit of volunteerism, we at KLMUC cannot emphasize more on the importance of giving back to the community,” said Hj. Kamal Nawawi, CEO of Cosmopoint Group of Companies.

Attendees were also given the opportunity to register themselves under the ‘Young Voters’ programme, an effort that seeks the youth to participate in choosing the right future for Malaysia. *need to check

“It is truly an honour for us to work with GPMS, over the years the body has been known for their great effort and work to uplift Malay students in their pursuit for success; I hope our students will feel inspired even more from this day forth as it is of utmost importance to us in giving our students only the best and with a prominent body such as GPMS to support us, success for our students is certain, “added Hj. Kamal Nawawi CEO of Cosmopoint Group of Companies.

“Additionally, I must say that I am confident that through our efforts and commitment, we will be able to achieve more and continue to develop an even stronger relationship and friendship with the GPMS team,” said Hj. Kamal Nawawi.

Having traced its roots back to colonial times, GPMS has always been known for its prominent work in empowering the Malay students. Founded in 1948 by The Convention of Malay Students of Malaya it has continued to foster the growth of Malay students in their endeavours for excellence.
