

KLMUC Internship & Career Festival

Kuala Lumpur, 1st June 2016 – Kuala Lumpur Metropolitan University College (KLMUC) held its Internship and Career Festival at Metro Campus in Menara Tun Ismail Mohamed Ali (TIMA). The event is parallel to KLMUC motto of ‘Real World Practice’, where it exposes KLMUC students, especially final-year students to networking, internship and job opportunities with participating companies.

This event was officiated by the CEO of Cosmopoint Sdn. Bhd. and Acting Vice Chancellor of KLMUC, Mohamad Kamal Nawawi, together with the Deputy Vice Chancellor of KLMUC, Dr Mizarina Abu Bakar. Organised by the department of Careers and Partners (C & P) and co-organiser GTI Media Sdn Bhd, the Festival provided a platform for students to learn about industry specifics and the business of prospective employers. This year, more than 30 companies participated at the festival. The festival also saw the likes of prominent establishments such as Astro, Sushi Kin and Top Glove who were present to shed light on their relevant industries and talent recruitment.

“We are pleased with this year’s Internship and Career Festival, it has always been a main priority for us to not only equip our students with theoretical knowledge but also on the know-how of their relevant industries. This is the very essence of the ‘Real World Practice’ initiative where we emphasise the growth of our students professionally as much as learning itself,” said Kamal.

The fair also accommodated a Memorandum of Understanding between KLMUC and GTI Media Sdn Bhd, Triways Travel Network, MERCi Culinary and Wadhvani Operating Foundation, which seeks to strengthen the bond between KLMUC and our industry partner.

GTI Media Sdn Bhd is a part of Group GTI, which is the largest international graduate careers publisher in the world. They work closely with recruiters, career services, professional bodies, students and graduates to produce, share research and information that provokes thought and helps shape graduate recruitment in Asia.

Students were also presented with the opportunity of participating in face to face interview to secure internship opportunities as part of their programme requirement. Several workshops were also given by participating companies, namely DeBancCo, Sofis Financial Consultant and Osiris International on Financial Management Skills and Building a Good First Impression. These sessions enlightened students on the insights and advise for them to succeed in their respective fields.

A forum on Youth & Career, panelled by Career Xcell, Pertubuhan Wanita Bumiputera Kuala Lumpur & Selangor (PERNITA) and KLMUC Alumni, Muhammad Helmi Abdul Aziz covers the psychology and social aspects of youth and their association with career self-efficacy.

KLMUC also organised an Open Day during the event to provide an opportunity for industry partners and the general public to get an insight of KLMUC programme offerings, recently renovated facilities and learning environment.

“The Festival today has also been a good platform for prospective employers to discover KLMUC students and their potential, hopefully this will secure them with a good job prospect once they enter the working world,” adds Kamal.

Currently, KLMUC administers programmes for Management & Business Technology, Design & Creativity, Hospitality, Tourism and Wellness and Media Studies, to name a few. All programmes have been endorsed and approved by the Ministry of Education and accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (formerly LAN).
